Today we are offering them for less than a sixteenth of that cost — and in a much more durable and attractive format. Simply send $16 for each CD, or five CDs for $50 postpaid, to National Alliance, Box 172, Laurel Bloomery TN 37680 USA, making your checks payable to National Vanguard Books. National Alliance Radio Network

The Alliance has just launched a twenty-four hours per day, seven days per week online radio stream which we call the National Alliance Radio Network. It features all of the latest series of American Dissident Voices (ADV) broadcasts, about 100 in all since we re-launched the program at the end of 2013 — and it also includes an ever-increasing collection of classic ADV programs, by both Kevin Strom and Dr. Pierce. Right now we are still in the process of selecting, editing, and digitizing the classic programs — of which we eventually hope to have hundreds online.

In addition to American Dissident Voices broadcasts new and old, we have also added a number of important speeches and audio books by patriots such as Dr. Revilo Oliver, Dr. Pierce, Jan Cartwright, Vanessa Neubauer, Jack Pershing, Emory Burke, Robert Mathews, and many others.

Our programming is a mix of up-to-the-minute new broadcasts and classic works of permanent value. We also occasionally intersperse our talk programming with music — some of the great works of classical music and also exceptionally well-done racially-oriented modern music by Joseph Pryce and Dresden. In the future, we expect to be adding new programming too — so watch this space!

All you have to do to listen is to visit any page on our news site, http://nationalvanguard.org/

At the very top of the right column you will see a small audio player — just click on the play button and in a few seconds you will hear our audio stream. Unlike with our recordings of individual programs — which are still very much available — you don't need to select a program; you don't need to download anything; and the sound doesn't stop when the current program is over. It just keeps going forever, and you'll hear something new almost every time you tune in and several times every hour.

And there's another way to listen, too, besides in your browser: If you'd like to use your favorite standalone media player or tablet or smart phone, just access the stream via one of these URLs:

For Winamp or iTunes:

http://streams4.museter.com:2199/tunein/national.pls

For Windows Media Player:

http://streams4.museter.com:2199/tunein/national.asx

For Apple QuickTime:

http://streams4.museter.com:2199/tunein/national.qtl

If you'd like to simply click on these links instead of typing them into your player, just visit:

http://natall.com/radio-network

So listen to our network while you get ready for work in the morning, keep us on in the background while you accomplish your tasks for the day — and, if you happen to have a Part 15 neighborhood FM transmitter, you can rebroadcast our stream so that others can hear it.

To keep this network on the air — and to justify the time and expense it takes to run it — we do need your support in the form of donations and CD purchases.

Improvement to The Land

Former long time National Alliance staffers Fred and Marta Streed purchased a lovely, wooded, four-acre lot in 2002 that overlooks the National Office headquarters and the rolling mountains and valleys beyond. It is surrounded by National Alliance and Cosmotheist Community Church property, and has a right of way across our land for access to the home.

OVERLOOKING The Land and the endless vistas of the most rural county in the eastern United States, the Streed cabin and property will be a valuable asset in building our White community. In this recent photograph, we see Chairman Williams and Fred Streed — the man who built the cabin, and who also built a great deal of our National Alliance infrastructure.

The Streeds built a very nice, expandable A-frame cabin on their lot in 2003 before they were run off by Erich Gliebe and Shaun Walker later that year. The cabin was "dried in" but has been left unfinished since the Streeds relocated back to the west coast where Fred grew up.

By necessity, there is a permanent, deeded right of way through our gate and up our internal private road to this otherwise landlocked property. In order to maintain future control and the integrity of our entire 360 acres, the Streed's homestead needed to become part of The Land going forward. So Chairman Williams has purchased the cabin from the Streeds, will finish all necessary construction and improvements, and incorporate it into the Alliance's rebuilding efforts as staff housing — as was intended originally when the Streeds planned to retire on The Land twelve years ago.

An Alliance couple or family will enjoy living in this nice home while working for the race here in our incomparably beautiful "White Zion."

Anniversaries

It has been one year now since the National Alliance has been under new management. It's a good time to reflect on how far we have come, and also celebrate some other significant anniversaries that took place this year.

It has been 20 years since our Web sites, natall.com and natvan.com, were launched.

Next month will mark the 24th anniversary of the launch of American Dissident Voices radio.

It has been 30 years since Dr. William Pierce purchased The Land in 1985, beginning our White community there.

The Cosmotheist Community Church was formally organized by Dr. Pierce 37 years ago, in 1978. In that same year, National Vanguard (now found at nationalvanguard.org) was begun as a successor to the earlier Alliance tabloid newspaper, Attack!

National Vanguard Books was founded as a separate entity 28 years ago, in 1987.

The National Alliance was incorporated by Dr. Pierce 41 years ago, in 1974.

It was 45 years ago, in 1970, that Dr. Pierce assumed leadership of the National Youth Alliance, remade it into a totally new, revolutionary organization, and began his sole editorship of its Attack! newspaper.

On September 11, 2015, Dr. Pierce would have been 82 years old. 9/11 is celebrated rather differently by National Alliance members than it is by others, as we remember and celebrate the life of a man whose words and deeds are still shaking the foundations of the world.

Achievements — and Needs

The needs of the National Alliance are many, considering the deep hole we've been digging ourselves out of for the past year: so few members with which to start over; seemingly insurmountable debt; crushing property taxes; dark, abandoned, unmaintained buildings without working plumbing; no staff in West Virginia; piles of trash everywhere; records in a shambles, no organizational Web sites, a $2 million lawsuit to fight off; and numerous attacks by the Jewish-controlled media.

Many of those challenges have been met; the rest are on their way to being met.

Looking back at one year ago, though, it wasn't all negative. We did have some real positives going for us as we "came out of the gate" running: Dr. Pierce's library had been saved and preserved, as well as another large racialist library. The Alliance board had turned the National Alliance, National Vanguard Books, and the Cosmotheist Community Church over to the present stewards of Dr. William Pierce's legacy — rather than to the long-time Gliebe-associated Ring gang, who have been spitefully trying to use System courts against us since then. Our media director, Kevin Alfred Strom, had secured and maintained nationalvanguard.org for years (and has now remade it into the main Alliance media outlet) and had relaunched our American Dissident Voices radio broadcasts nearly a year before (soon two years ago now). Chairman Williams had built a beautiful new National Office building in Johnson County, Tennessee, where he and his wife Lana now handle mail, banking and financial records, and membership activities — such as the mailing of 11 consecutive monthly National Alliance BULLETINs in as many months.

Our first year of struggle and rebuilding has gotten our West Virginia National Office back up to functionality. We still have a long way to go, however, to reach the level of activity we are aiming for.

We've had some unfortunate experiences with a couple of marginal employees hired to work and to maintain a presence in West Virginia, but have gotten through those without significant damage to our overall operation. It has been difficult getting the kind of staff we have needed at our West Virginia offices this year, with living conditions being as they were and having such a small pool of candidates to draw from. But we have competent personnel on site now and enough of the right equipment to get us through our second Winter as we prepare for our 2016 Spring Offensive.

Material Needs

To help move the Alliance forward, some of our material needs include:

- A fairly new riding lawn mower
- A 20 kW whole house generator, propane powered (approximately $5,000).
- Tools of all sorts, hand and powered
- Portable heaters
- Good wood stoves
- Log-splitters
- Portable generators
- An all-terrain vehicle (ATV)
- A small dump truck
- Studio equipment (late model digital video cameras, compatible wireless microphones, news-anchor sets, etc.)

Personnel Needed

Even more urgently needed are people willing to devote their time and their lives to our cause. Here's the kind of people we're looking for:

- A builder, carpenter, mechanic, and handy man (like Fred Streed was for 11 years while Dr. Pierce was alive)
- Mechanical, electrical, carpentry, masonry, concrete, equipment experts and operators, etc., etc.
- Couples who have skills such as gardening, accounting, etc.; home schoolers welcome
- Attorneys, CPAs
- Computer specialists, Internet technicians
- Studio technicians

New Book Offers

Two books offered this month to National Alliance members and supporters are David Duke's Jewish Supremacism: My Awakening to the Jewish Question ($20 postpaid, hardback) and The Poetic Edda, translated by Lee M. Hollander ($15 postpaid, soft cover). Conditions: new; Edda in cellophane wrap. Purchase both together for $32 postpaid to our regular Tennessee address (make checks payable to National Vanguard Books) or order online at http://natall.com/book-offer

These books would make good additions to any racialist's library, and they make excellent holiday gifts!

Dr. DUKE shows us how Jewish supremacists in government, media, and finance seek to disenfranchise us all.

Correspondence

Chairman Williams: With reference to Jim Ring — I edited some of Ring's illustrious scholarship when I worked for Herr Gliebe at the National Office in 2006 and 2007. His essays were riddled with grammatical errors and braggadocio, the subjects being things he did thirty years ago or — in the BULLETINs — riveting tales about hiking into the woods of northern California to read Mein Kampf to the squirrels. And we mustn't forget his gun show heroics, where he bravely stood behind a book table and stared down Mestizo cockroaches as they oozed by. The mere sight of the frumpy munchkin must have sent shivers through the segmented bodies of every Mexican't. Despite the Herculean achievements, I think Monsieur Ring will be waiting a while longer for his Nobel Prize. Conclusion: Jim Ring is a mini-Fuhrer with delusions of grandeur, nothing more. — R.W., Ohio

Chairman Williams: Enclosed are dues for October. After reading the September BULLETIN

A BEAUTIFUL, moving translation of the Poetic Edda helps us understand the history and heritage of Nordic Europe.

I got a better understanding of the past problems the National Alliance was facing. I was also one of those last 24 members [you inherited from former Chairman Gliebe]. That NARRG grouplet is not going to advance the National Alliance by any means — they are just more whining Internet types. Our outfit is now back on track and 100% involved, come hell or high water! Thank goodness you've got the ball rolling again for our Alliance. I originally joined in 1983 and realized then that our organization was the best answer to our race's predicament.

The new material (business cards, booklets, and fliers) are excellent for recruiting and educating — top quality! Keep up the great work! — K.O., Michigan

Dear Chairman: As long as Dr. Pierce's work is available for newcomers to read or listen to, it should serve as an inspiration for people to support the National Alliance, the organization he founded to carry out his vision. The National Alliance is the only firmly established organization with an impeccable outline for the work that is needed to be done to achieve our goals for White racial survival. Dr. Pierce's work is the most honest and irrefutable work produced in the latter half of the 20th century. I don't see any others' that even come close to the facts and information Dr. Pierce presented. It is my duty to help continue Dr. Pierce's work and carry out his mission.

Thanks for the invitation to check out the WV property. I don't know when that will happen, but I hope that I can make it there as soon as possible. The best I can do to help now is to pledge $100 a month to support the NA. If I can find a better paying job (which I am currently looking for) I will increase the amount of my pledge. Reviving and building the NA is a stressful task and with setbacks can be discouraging, but I believe that with patience we will be successful. I feel the sense of urgency now to simply keep the Alliance afloat, but I also see the need to get the greater number of supporters to make our organization truly successful. I wish you the best of luck in getting through your second year as Alliance Chairman. Sincerely, — D.O., New York

Chairman Williams responds: I very much appreciate the notes and letters I receive from all of you each month. Encouraging feedback like this makes all of our work and sacrifice worthwhile. I regret that I don't respond to as many letters as I should. It's easier to respond to emails, so members and supporters are encouraged to write me at:

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Resourcefulness and Dedication

One thing I learned from my tours as a young soldier in Southeast Asia years ago, and never forgot, was resourcefulness. Our remote Special Forces A-Camp on the Cambodian border in the Mekong Delta might be described in today's lingo as "off the grid." With the help of around 600 indigenous troops we generated our own power, built our own buildings — even manufactured our own bricks and mined our own sand for mortar and concrete and thousands of sandbags. We engineered our own plumbing system and camp defenses. We were rarely supplied with food and beverages, or even much ammunition like the regular line units. We learned to barter with those units for what they had, trading captured weapons, etc., even homemade souvenir Viet Cong flags and VC sandals made from scrounged tire treads by our Vietnamese troops and their dependents. Out of necessity we got very good at begging, borrowing, or stealing whatever we could that would help us meet our mission. As our team's Executive Officer much of the scrounging responsibility fell on my shoulders. We were always figuring creative ways to find more money and goods for our needs. When I occasionally went out on runs to find Vietnamese recruits to replace the ones that had disappeared or been killed, our unauthorized slush fund made recruiting those boys possible. I wasn't particularly comfortable with bending the rules, but I and my teammates were in a war, and in it together up to our necks. Our scrounging for necessities was part and parcel of "unconventional" Special Forces culture, as exemplified by the Jirecek quote above.

> We have done so much, for so long, with so little, we are now qualified to do anything with nothing.
> quote on A-414 Team House wall, attributed to Konstantin Jirecek, Czech historian

What do this old soldier's reminiscences have to do with the National Alliance today, you ask? We are just as surely in a war today, albeit not a full-blown shooting war — but a war nevertheless, and one for the very survival of our kind on this Earth — a fight to the death, so to speak, competing for living space against determined, invasive subspecies who have been invoking Nature's imperative: taking whatever they can from the White Man. Most of our kin do not realize that fact as we do. But they will soon enough, as the society they once enjoyed breaks down further, faster — and along racial lines. Some will, or already have, joined with our biological enemies against their own blood. Some of those deracinated kinsmen can be saved; most probably cannot. Regardless, our Alliance has to be there for those who are eligible when they are ready for us.

As National Alliance Chairman today I'm feeling the burn from having to do so much with so little for so long. We desperately need working funds and many more supporters to take care of pressing Alliance business. Needs, needs, needs! one of my old mentors used to say — material needs and personnel needs, like those expressed in this BULLETIN. I can only scrounge so much for what we need. I must depend on the generosity of our supporters and their creativity, their industry, to grow our numbers and our accounts without compromising our values.

I will hold my post for as long as I can, friends. I accept that it will never get easier. I must publicly thank our Media Director Kevin Alfred Strom. As I started writing this commentary this morning, 28 November, the word "thankless" kept crossing my mind for some reason. Is it all worth it? I asked. Then I listened to this week's American Dissident Voices Thanksgiving broadcast where Kevin was expressing his own heartfelt thanks, including to me and my wife Svetlana. That was nice, Kevin. You express my own thanks for the Alliance, our members, supporters and friends, and for you and Vanessa. Your pulling together both our new National Alliance Radio Network outreach and the WLP CD project this month is nothing short of phenomenal.
